

contents

July/August 2003, vol. 19, no. 4

18 A Basic Guide to Color & Embroidery

Transition to the fall season with this smocked, plaid, bishop. Learn helpful tips for working with plaids—cutting to insure the plaids match, selecting the best floss colors, and more.

22 Sewing for Baby

See the versatility of this heirloom yoke/overlay in an infant dress and bubble. Following these step-by-step instructions, the delicate pairing of tucks and lace easily adapt to fit your needs.

25 A, B, C's

Make back-to-school fun with clothes in featherwale corduroy, broadcloth, and prints. All garments feature the use of bias and are combined with classic smocking, embroidery, or appliqué designs showcasing extracurricular activities children love.

34 Trendsetting Totes

Create that special accessory this fall for any occasion with these easy-to-follow instructions. Unique fabric combinations and closures make each one an original.

61 Smock Plate

The joy of childhood friendships and games are characterized in "Schoolyard Jumpers," an original smocking design. Debbie Hayden takes us back-to-school again this year with her "little people" creations. See "Essentials," pages 61-63, for how-to on smocking stitches.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 4

ON THE COVER: Add a playful appliqué to a basic dress with the instructions on pages 66-69. Fabric is Bear Threads' Swiss micro-check. Pattern is "Jenni Leigh" by Children's Corner. All materials available from Carol Harris Co. See Suppliers Directory.

